

K-Love Radio is an important part of our community. Family friendly Christian music is a positive impact not only on my family but for many members of our local community.

Taking K-Love Radio off the air in our area would have no positive impact. In a time when morals and values are at best questionable on secular radio stations, K-Love provides encouraging music to listeners as well as providing hope to those who are hurting.